Learn and Practice Ontological Coaching

A comprehensive and holistic coaching approach

We teach coaching like no other school and our graduates become extraordinary personal and executive coaches. Specifically, a simple yet all-encompassing approach to coaching, developed by Newfield over the last three decades. We call it Ontological Coaching. This approach to coaching generates wisdom and transforms your capacity for action, while teaching you to coach others in meaningful and sustainable change.

The program is for people who want to transform their own results or produce results through others; professional coaches, those learning coaching, internal coaches, leaders, managers, medical professionals, lawyers, entrepreneurs and so many more who seek a coaching approach to be more effective.

Our promise to you

- You will transform ineffective habits of thinking, feeling and acting in your personal and professional life.
- You will develop coaching skills for effectiveness and well-being.
- You will transform how you manage lead and interact with others.
- You will explore ways to start your coaching practice or develop an internal coaching program in your organisation.

Newfield's Coach Certification Program gives you a professional frame-work to be qualified to coach others. The program consists of two modules: Foundations in Ontological Learning then The Art and Practice of Ontological Mastery. Once you complete both modules, you are eligible for Newfield Coach Certification which opens the door to ICF accreditation.

Study with masters

This program is led by a team of global experts each of whom specialise in their field. The training team is then supported by a select team of world-class global coaches who support our students in their learning and breakthroughs.

The experience has been "defining" for me in more ways than one, and, I would not trade this for anything on planet earth. And, the beauty of it all - we are just beginning to explore, beginning to observe differently, beginning to accept.. and, beginning to make a difference with a new way of being.
